Part four – your work history

We are required by law to make sure we know about the work you have done in the past, as well as the periods you may have spent out of employment. Therefore, please list your full employment history here, including any periods when you were not working (along with an explanation of what you were doing). You may use extra sheets if you need more space.

Please start with your current or most recent employment and work backwards.

Part five – your referees

Please provide the details of four people that we can write to for a reference. The first of these people must be your current or most recent employer. The other referees will ideally also be your most recent previous employers.

If you cannot provide the details of four previous employers, you may substitute one or more of these with a referee who was a former tutor or teacher when you were in formal education.

If you cannot provide details of a teacher or tutor, we may accept a personal reference from a person of professional standing (e.g. a doctor, lawyer, accountant, recognised religious leader or teacher) who knows you, either professionally or personally.

You must not give the names of friends or relatives or colleagues that are/were not senior to you as referees. All references will be verified.

Part six - criminal record

Care workers work with vulnerable people and we take our responsibility to protect them very seriously. Your appointment will depend on the satisfactory completion of a criminal records disclosure (see policy statement below), but at this stage, we need you to answer the following questions truthfully and honestly:

| Have you received any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013 by SI 210 1198)? |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Yes No charged or summoned but not yet dealt with) or any police investigation? Yes No Summoned but not yet dealt with) or any police investigation? Yes No |
| If you answered 'yes' to either of the two previous questions, please provide details: |
| |
| |
| Do you consent to our applying for an enhanced criminal records disclosure on you and to our retaining a copy of your disclosure certificate during the period of your employment or until a new disclosure is completed (whichever occurs first)? |
| Yes |
| Note that if, once a criminal records disclosure has been completed, it is discovered that you have failed to accurately disclose the information requested above, the company reserves the right to terminate your employment without notice. Please be aware, however, that your having a criminal record will not necessarily mean we cannot employ you – if you would like to know more about our policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders, please ask. |
| Criminal records disclosures – our policy As an organisation assessing applicants' suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), we comply fully with the Code of Practice and undertake to treat all applicants for positions fairly. We will not discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed. |
| We can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that we are legally entitled to know about. Where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended) and where appropriate Police Act Regulations (as amended), we can only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected. |
| Part seven – suitability for the job Please read the care worker job description and answer the following questions. |
| Have you read and understood the care worker job description? |
| The position for which you are applying requires physical effort (including sitting, standing, carrying, walking, moving and handling people), mental effort (including dealing with emergencies and short-notice changes to work in a fast-paced environment) and possible emotional/psychological effort (including dealing with bereavement and challenging behaviour in a potentially stressful environment) |
| Do you have any health conditions that would prevent you from meeting these intrinsic requirements for which the company might need to make reasonable adjustments? (If yes, please be aware that we may need to discuss these with you at your interview) |
| Yes No If you answered 'yes', please provide brief details: |
| in you anomored you, picase provide bilet details. |

Part eight – declarations

Please read the following statements carefully. If there is anything you do not understand, please ask before you sign at the bottom of the page.

I, the job applicant named on the front of this form, confirm that the information I have given in this application is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge. I also understand and agree that:

- The company may make checks to verify the information I have provided;
- O Providing misleading or false information in this form or at any other time during the application process may disqualify me from appointment or, if I have already been appointed, may result in my dismissal;
- O I will be liable for the cost of my initial criminal records disclosure but that the company will bear the cost of any future disclosures that need to be made;
- Any offer of employment will depend on the receipt of satisfactory employment references and the satisfactory completion of a criminal records disclosure;
- I will be liable for half of the cost (£50) of my training and pay £15 as the cost of any uniform given to me.
